Jail bond issue, U.S. Senate race generating most interest in election

BY DENA BISNETTE

More than 18,000 Hancock County residents will have their chance to pick their candidates for both local and national offices on Tuesday.

In addition, voters will decide whether the county will have a new jail and whether a proposed amendment will be added to the state constitution.

After a registration drive designed to introduce one-stop registration last month and a purging of the county's voter registration books, the county has 18,685 registered voters, 332 more than when the county election commission made its last previous count in March.

Election Commission Secretary Charles F. Gottschalk said Friday he expects voter turnout for this election to be higher than for any election during the past 12 years.

He explained that his opinion is based on the number of votes already cast by absentee ballot. He said there have been 10 times more absentee voters than usual.

In local races, voters will choose their election commissioners and part of the county school board.

The election commissioners are elected to serve specific districts like the board of supervisors. Only the voters in their districts may vote for election commission candidates.

Beat One voters will have a choice between two Democrats, incumbent Jacob V. "J.V." Ladner and challenger James A. "Jimmie" Ladner Jr.

Beat Two incumbent Francis L. "Frank" Lee is running unopposed. He is also a Democrat.

Three candidates are competing for election commissioner in Beat Three. They include incumbent John V. Ladner, a Republican; Independent Betsy Nolan and Democrat Conrad Joseph Saucier.

Jerry Seuzeneau, the Beat Four incumbent, is not running again and three Democrats are trying to become his successor. The candidates include Eugene Dillman, Sidney Sandoz and Calvin R. Smith.

The Beat Five race also includes only Democrats, with incumbent Charles F. Gottschalk facing challenger Kire C. Mitchell Jr.

The other local race is for Beat Five representative to the Hancock County School Board. The voting for this race, however, is not restricted to residents of Beat Five.

Instead, school board members are elected at large and the only voters excluded from participating in the race are those living in the Bay St. Louis school district.

The race includes incumbent Johnny Banks, Larry Koerner, Marion Neil Breland Koenen and Lennette M. Necaise.

In addition to the races for those up against former governor William Winter, a Democrat.

The candidates for U.S. House of Representatives, Fifth District, are the same as in 1980. Incumbent Trent Lott, a Republican, faces challenger Arlon "Blackie" Coate, a Democrat.

Incumbent Michael Sullivan is running unopposed for Second District Supreme Court Judge, post two.

Only one statewide issue appears on the ballot. It is titled "Senate Concurrent Resolution 548" and deals with a proposed constitutional amendment.

Commonly referred to as "the ethics amendment," the resolution proposes changing laws governing a public official's involvement in businesses contracting with public entities.

State Senator Gene Taylor and groups including Common Cause have been lobbying for the defeat of the proposal.

The race listing the highest number of candidates on the ballot is the race for the nation's highest office. Incumbent president Ronald Reagan and Vice President George Bush face seven and six challengers, respectively.

The most familiar challengers are Democrats Walter Mondale and Geraldine Ferraro, who are already involved in national politics. Mondale was Jimmy Carter's vice president and Ferraro is a member of Congress.

Among the lesser known candidates are Libertarian David Bergland and his running mate Jim Lewis and seven independents.

The Independents include Lyndon H. Larouche Jr. and running mate Billy M. Davis; Mel Mason and Matilde Zimmerman; Bob Richard; and Maureen Salaman; and Dennis Serrette, who has no running mate.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. positions, local issues on the ballot include a $2.4 million bond issue for a new jail. The proposed bond issue covers the cost of construction, fees and furnishing for the facility but does not specify where it would be constructed.

The jail bond issue was also on the 1983 county election ballot but was defeated by 32 votes. If it passes this time, it will be the first bond issue to pass in the county in more than 20 years.

Three district races affect Hancock County voters and will also appear on the ballot. They include one senate race, one house of representatives race and one supreme court judge post.

The U.S. Senate race puts incumbent Thad Cochran, a Republican,

Bay mayor suspends PD captain

Bay St. Louis Police Capt. Robert Butler has been suspended indefinitely from the department, Mayor Larry J. Bennett reported late Saturday.

Bennett said Butler was suspended Friday for an indefinite period due to "actions unbecoming an officer."

The mayor declined to elaborate further on the matter "at this time."

Butler has been with the police department for more than two years.

Chief Williams to be honored

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Friends of Bay St. Louis Police Chief Douglas J. Williams are invited to a retirement and appreciation program set for Nov. 8 at 7 p.m. The program will be at the St. Augustine Seminary Gymnasium and will be followed by a reception.

Williams, a member of the police department for 19 years, retired from the department in September because of ill health. He had been the chief for nearly eight years.

One of the first two black police officers in Bay St. Louis, Williams had completed his police training at the Gulfport Police Department.

According to Bay Mayor Larry Bennett, Williams will retire with a lifetime commission as a police officer.

Williams married to the former Louise Williams and they have two daughters and six grandchildren.

ship and grooming. Friday is 4-H and Youth Day at the fair.

Geologist discusses continent changes

Although the Earth is 4½ billion years old, between 220 and 160 million years ago the vast expanse we now call the Atlantic Ocean was little more than a narrow crack between North America and Europe, according to geologists.

Dr. Ervin G. Otvos, head of the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory geology section, addressed the constant changes of the continents and our own barrier islands in a recent "Year of the Ocean" seminar.

"Why Islands and Other Deep Ocean Phenomena?" was presented at the laboratory's J.L. Scott Marine Education Center in Biloxi.

In the 17th century people charting maps of the coastlines of Africa and South America recognized how neatly the two fit together. German meteorologist Alfred Wegener proposed the "continental drift" theory during World War I.

Yet, Otvos explained, it is only through the technical sophistication of the past 30 years that scientists have confirmed that continents do indeed shift and bunch together.

Until this century it was accepted that the ocean bottoms were dark, flat and lifeless.

We now know huge ridges and trenches criss-cross the ocean floor. The mid-oceanic ridges are over 80,000 miles long. They often have a central valley that is being pulled apart and filled by intense volcanic activity.

"New sea bottoms are being formed continuously by lava flow as ocean plates shift to make room for them," Otvos said. He cited evidence gathered by drilling through the ocean's sediment layers to volcanic layers below.

"Sea floor has just been born where the youngest sediments are found," he explained.

"The farther that samples were taken from the central ridge valley, the older the sediments were."

As the sea floor spreads and moves away from newly forming areas it is being buckled under, descends or is forced into the deep mantle layer beneath the earth's crust, and is consumed.

Some of this matter returns to the surface through volcanoes as lava.

DONATION—Patricia Harvill, a member of the board of directors for the Hancock County United Way, accepts a $100 check from James Dykes, manager of the Bay St. Louis Jitney Jungle store. The check is the company's donation to this year's United Way drive and was presented Tuesday. The company was also recommended by district manager Jim Williams of Hattiesburg. (Staff photo by Dena Bisnette)

LIFE AT SEA—Public television presents an emotional and human portrait of life aboard the United States aircraft carrier John F. Kennedy and one of its escort ships in "Second Home." The one-hour film focuses on three Navy men and their families just as the Kennedy and its battle group departed for deployment off the coast of Lebanon in 1983. The program will be aired at 9 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 7 on ETV, ch. 19.

News Brief

BROKERS EXAM

The Mississippi Real Estate Commission reports the December examination for real estate brokers and salespersons will be conducted Dec. 17, 9 a.m. at the Holiday Inn Downtown in Jackson.

There had been a previous announcement that the examination would not be held because there was usually very little demand for a December examination.

Correction

The photograph printed in advertisements in Wednesday's Echo Extra and Thursday's The Sea Coast Echo for John V. Ladner, incumbent candidate for District Three election commissioner, was not John V. Ladner.

The candidate in the photo, Jacob "J.V." Ladner, is running for election commissioner in District Four. The Echo apologizes for the error.

Vote ☒ for the jail bond issue on Nov. 6.

Hancock County Jail Committee

(Submitted by the Hancock County Jail Publicity Committee, Mary M. Perkins, and Charles Gustis, co-chairmen)

New jail a must for Hancock County

The subject of a new county jail has been the topic of discussion for many months in Hancock County.

As every day goes by, the need for a new jail appears to be more of a serious matter.

The murder last week in the Hancock County jail could have possibly been avoided if there had been more adequate space for the housing of prisoners.

When the sheriff has three convicted murderers, two persons awaiting trial for murder and a total of five cells and 30 other prisoners in the county jail, there is no way of placing inmates by themselves.

Our county jail has the reputation of being one of the worse facilities in the state of Mississippi.

The population of Hancock County has grown tremendously since the Hancock County jail was constructed in 1937, and projections tell us the county is even going to grow at a faster pace in the next decade.

The lack of space and overcrowding in a jail causes so many serious problems in operations alone.

Mobile County is an example of what a federal judge can do on jail overcrowding.

As Nov. 2, 1984 Mobile County has been assessed $3,670,000 (yes that is $3.67 million) by Federal Judge Virgil Pittman for failure to eliminate jail overcrowding.

The residents of Mobile County had a chance to vote for a new jail, and they defeated it. After a $5,000 a day fine was slapped against county, the voters passed a bond issue, yet the fine continues while a new jail is being constructed.

When the Hancock County jail was constructed in 1937, it was for 15 inmates. Last week there were 32 to 40 inmates each day. The figure has even reached over 50 on several occasions in recent years.

There is no question about the need for a new jail, and we urge all citizens to vote for a new jail on Tuesday, Nov. 6, 1984.

Quotables by CUEVAS

The Annual Hancock County Fair will be held Nov. 6-10 at the Hancock County Fairgrounds on Longfellow Road.

On Tuesday from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. all perishable and non-perishable exhibits can be entered for adults and youth.

Wednesday has been named as 'Senior Citizens Day', and Friday as 'Youth Day'.

The entire week is filled with activities for both young and old and we hope many will enjoy the County Fair.

Field Day on Friday is always an interesting time with school children having fun and looking forward to winning some of the many events. The Bay St. Louis Rotary Club makes the Field Day a little interesting by providing some cash prizes in the events.

The livestock judging on Friday creates a lot of interest for the young boys and girls who spend much time in preparations for the big event.

We hope to see you at the Hancock County Fair.

We heard several very complimentary statements on how nice Cedar Rest and St. Mary's Cemeteries were for All Saints Day.

Several said they were the best groomed they have seen in years.

We would like to send compliments to those responsible for doing a wonderful job this year.

OLDEST GRAVE IN CEDAR REST—Mrs. William Hilliker of the Hancock County Historical Society on Wednesday checks the inscription on the grave of Powhattan Robertson who died in Shieldsborough at the Bay of St. Louis Oct. 18, 1820 'in bloom of youth.' Mrs. Hilliker said Mrs. Robertson was first buried near the beachfront and then moved to Cedar Rest after it began in 1840. The Historical Society is recording all of the grave sites in the cemetery and is still lacking the names of several. Relatives and friends of loved ones buried without identification on grave sites in Cedar Rest are requested to contact the society by writing, Historical Society, P.O. Box 1340, Bay St. Louis, Miss. 39520. (Staff photo by Ellis Cuevas).

All qualified electors should vote Tuesday

On Tuesday qualified electors of Hancock County will have an opportunity of voting for several offices as well as on a new jail and a senate concurrent resolution.

The majority of us only think about the Republican and Democratic nominees for president of our country. Some will be surprised to see eight persons seeking the office for president.

There are Republican, Democratic, Libertarian, and five Independent candidates for president on our ballot.

This is a very important election and all qualified electors are urged to get out and vote on Tuesday.

We have a United States Senate race, United States House of Representatives for the Fifth Congressional District, a very important school board seat in the Hancock County School District, Hancock County Election Commissioners for each District, Proposition for a new county jail, and the Senate Resolution which is referred to by some folks as the 'conflict of interest bill.'

As Americans we are very fortunate to have an opportunity of voting for the candidate or candidates of our choice, this freedom is not enjoyed by all people of the world.

This freedom has to be protected, and one of the ways is for all Americans to get out and vote on election day.

Every vote does count, and we know of several races over the years on a local basis where only one vote made the difference.

Remind everyone you know to get out and vote on Tuesday. If you have neighbors needing transportation, offer to take them to the polls.

MEC

A CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTION

Amendments to Mississippi's constitution are generally approved by the electorate with little attention to the issue and sometimes even less attention to the effects of such revision.

That is not the case with the proposed amendment which will appear on the Nov. 6 ballot. What began as an effort to clear up confusion between the existing constitutional language and statutory rules regarding conflict of interest has become a confused and complex question.

In effect, the proposed amendment and accompanying statute may raise more questions than now exist.

The amendment permits legislators and public officials to do business with any level of government of which they are not a part. Some fear this would open the door to wide-scale corruption and influence peddling.

Meanwhile, the accompanying statute, which becomes effective upon approval of the amendment, removes an exemption which presently permits officers, directors, and employees of financial institutions to serve on public bodies which may use the institutions, which those individuals represent, as depositories or for other services.

Removal of the exemption could mean the removal of hundreds of responsible men and women from governmental positions which they have accepted, usually at some sacrifice.

Regardless of the outcome of the vote, the Legislature will have to continue to work on the ethics question in 1985.

The Mississippi voter will want to become familiar with the proposed amendment before he casts his ballot on November 6.

ANEURYSM

Q: My father, who suffered with headaches for years, died recently of an aneurysm. Could his headaches have been caused by the aneurysm?

An aneurysm is a weak spot in the wall of an artery, causing it to balloon out. It can form anywhere, but it's often found at the base of the brain in the area called the Circle of Willis, after Thomas Willis, a neuroanatomist. The following discussion pertains only to aneurysms in this location:

Severe headache often accompanies the rupture of an aneurysm, but there's no evidence that aneurysms are any more frequent in migraine or other headache patients.

Aneurysms are common and often produce no symptoms.

As many as five percent of people on whom autopsies are performed are found to have an aneurysm, although the aneurysm is not necessarily the cause of death.

A sudden rupture of the aneurysm produces a stroke with bleeding in and around the brain. This type of stroke carries a substantial mortality rate.

About 50 percent of these patients die within the first month. By comparison, most strokes have a mortality rate of about 15 to 20 percent, except for a massive, hypertensive cerebral hemorrhage.

Aneurysm is more common in women by a margin of three to two. Other kinds of strokes affect as many women as men, or affect more men. Aneurysm rarely occurs in infants, and its incidence increases with age.

Yet patients are affected by aneurysms at a younger age than they are from other strokes. People in their twenties and thirties can have ruptured aneurysms.

Aneurysms are not hereditary. However, some unusual hereditary conditions, such as certain kidney diseases, may be accompanied by aneurysms.

A rare opportunity to study aneurysms before the rupture occurs was provided by data collected in the Boston University/Framingham Heart Study.

Looking over the health records of 5,200 people during a 28-year period, physicians identified 35 people with ruptured aneurysms.

Their study reveals that in the afflicted group, people had blood pressure that was higher than normal. They also had more hypertension and more often smoked cigarettes.

Of patients who survive the initial rupture of aneurysm, a certain proportion will have another hemorrhage within several weeks.

For reasons that aren't fully understood, the vessels near the artery may develop spasm and cause a different kind of stroke. After six weeks, the site of rupture of the aneurysm heals over enough to reduce risk to the patient.

An arteriogram, an x-ray test that outlines the blood vessels around the brain, may be used to locate an aneurysm and to determine its size. The smaller the aneurysm, the less the risk of rupture. About 15 percent of patients have multiple aneurysms.

Within the last 15 years, there have been important advances in surgical techniques used to treat aneurysms. The use of the operating microscope and miniaturization have made it possible for surgeons to perform an operation to clip the aneurysm without undue damage to the brain.

Cost of building new jail pales in light of costs of not building

October 30, 1984
Letters to the Editor
Sea Coast Echo

Dear Sir:

After the appalling murder last Saturday in the Hancock County Jail, it is now an unavoidable fact that we voters must pass the new jail bond issue on Nov. 6.

The question is no longer, "What will it cost us to build a new jail?" Rather, the question now is, "What will it cost us if we don't build a new jail?"

I, for one, would rather put my money to work building a jail that will lift our correctional system out of the Middle Ages. I surely don't want to be taxed on every purchase I make in Hancock County in order to pay off yet another lawsuit. Heaven forbid.

We have in office a superior sheriff in Ronnie Peterson. But we have bound and shackled him by defeating past jail bond issues.

Please, to allow Sheriff Peterson and his department to do their jobs, and to protect ourselves (not only bodily but our pocketbooks as well), vote for the jail bond issue on Nov. 6.

I understand that people over the age of 65, disabled American veterans and those declared disabled, according to the Social Security Act, will pay nothing on the first $50,000 of their new personal property appraisal.

I further understand that we will each pay off the jail bond issue by figuring the following: (1) 15 percent of the new property appraisal. (2) Then $3 per thousand of that 15 percent. (3) So, if your home was appraised at $50,000, your cost per year to pay off the bond issue would come to approximately $23.

Compare that to a possible extra 1 percent sales tax on a weekly grocery bill of $50 and we'll find ourselves paying $26 a year more on groceries, not to mention all other purchases made in Hancock County if we are hit with yet another lawsuit!

Vote for the new jail bond issue on Nov. 6—please!

Sincerely,
Meta R. Garalde

Winter blasts Cochran performance

By any measurement the Mississippi farmer is worse off today than he was six years ago when Senator Thad Cochran took office, Democratic senatorial candidate William Winter told supporters in Cleveland Wednesday.

"Senator Cochran calls himself a champion of agriculture and reminds voters of his Senate Agriculture Committee assignments, but the hard truth is that Mississippi farmers are in much worse shape today than they were when Senator Cochran took office," Winter said.

Winter said that since 1979 when his opponent entered the Senate, total farm assets declined over one-half billion dollars in Mississippi and total farm debt rose to $887 million. "Since 1979 the equity in Mississippi farmers' operations has declined $1.4 billion or an average loss to each Mississippi farmer of $26,000," Winter said.

The former Mississippi governor, who owns a farm in Grenada, said that in 1979 a Mississippi farmer had a return of 29.3 cents for each dollar of debt whereas in 1982 that amount had plummeted to 4.8 cents per dollar of debt.

"These figures are just another reflection of the fact that since Senator Cochran has been a member of the Senate, real farm income has declined by 50 percent," Winter said.

Winter campaigned Wednesday in Port Gibson and Vicksburg and capped the day with a fundraiser in Cleveland at which Arkansas Gov. Bill Clinton was the featured speaker.

Cochran vows fight for farmers

Thad Cochran says he will "continue to fight for our farmers next year when Congress considers a new farm bill."

Cochran, chairman of two major subcommittees dealing with agriculture and farm programs, said he will be involved in a "key leadership role when we draft the 1985 farm bill."

The senator said he will seek provisions for a sound target price and loan rate structure for crops, increased farm export programs, and continued emphasis on agricultural research and development.

He noted that agriculture and related industry are "significant factors in Mississippi's economy and I certainly plan to continue using my seniority and influential committee positions on behalf of our farmers and agricultural enterprises."

Cochran also said in Grenada that he works closely with the state's two land grant colleges, Mississippi State and Alcorn State universities, in their agricultural research and development programs, as well as related agencies such as the Stoneville Experiment Station.

Cochran was in the Delta and North Mississippi areas as the 1984 campaign entered the final week. After visiting in the Grenada and

HANCOCK COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD - DISTRICT 5

It will be my pleasure and privilege to serve as your representative.

I, Nell Koennenn, am qualified to effectively and honestly serve in this vital position. "Vital position" because the members of the school board directly effect the future of our children and grandchildren.

I am a lifelong resident of Hancock County and have been involved with the operations and problems of the county school system throughout my entire life.

Both my father and mother (Mr. & Mrs. Ed Breland) spent their lives teaching school in Hancock County, with my father being honored for serving as Superintendent of the Hancock County School System.

As Ed Breland's daughter, I was involved with assisting him, learning many of the workings of a school board member.

I am the mother of three children, all of whom received 12 successful years of schooling in Hancock County.

As an interested and concerned mother, I took part in all school activities, giving me considerable exposure to the system.

In this day of progress and growth of Hancock County, one can foresee many problems in changes of the future in our educational system.

I am qualified and prepared to face not only these new problems, but also to correct mistakes in the system of the past.

This is a countywide election, and I sincerely solicit the help and support of all qualified voters.

Scardino scars Pirate 84 homecoming

By EDGAR H. PEREZ

The St. Stanislaus Rock-a-chaws spoiled the Pass Christian Pirates' homecoming celebration Friday night with a 41-27 upset football victory.

SSC's win in the 10-touchdown offensive duel was spearheaded by Rock quarterback Matt Scardino who went after the Pirates with a vengeance, running for three touchdowns and passing for two more.

Junior split end Lon Baxter snagged both of Scardino's touchdown aeriels, and fullback Chuck Yarborough ran in the sixth Rock six-pointer.

Stanislaus place kick specialist Matt Spotorno posted five extra points out of six tries for the SSC 41-point total.

Spotorno completed six extra point kicks, but one third quarter effort was nullified by an offensive holding call against the Rocks.

A second try at that point from 15 yards further out was blocked by the Pirates.

Pirate fullback Omar Saahir contributed 12 to the Pass total with short scoring runs in the first and second quarters.

Pass tailback Tony Howell posted six Pirate points on a one-yard plunge late in the first period, and tight end Irvin Hall smashed in from the one to score with less than two minutes left in the game.

Pirate place kicker Otis Gates hit three for three extra points, but a two-point pass attempt from quarterback Joey Rogers to wingback Willie Newsom following Hall's final period touchdown was unsuccessful.

FIRST QUARTER

The Pirates returned the game's opening kickoff by Eric Doyle some 18 yards from their own 20 to open their first scoring drive.

Contributing to the 80-yard rushing attack were Saahir, Rogers, Howell and Winston Ausmer.

Rogers hit split end Mark Boyd for 15 yards and fullback Jeffrey Payne picked up additional yardage on the ground to close the gap for Howell's one-yard scoring plunge.

Rock running back Todd Thriffley took the kickoff on his own 15 and scrambled for 20 yards to the SSC 35.

The Rocks picked up an additional five on an off-sides call before Scardino raced some 65 yards for the first Stanislaus score with 1:57 left in the first period.

SECOND QUARTER

The Pirates followed with a 90-yard, 10-play drive to their only touchdown of the second period, moving ahead 21-7 some four minutes into the period.

Stanislaus initiated a 15-play scoring drive with a 17-yard kickoff return by Mark Logan from his own 20.

That 80-yard SSC drive included a 15-yard pass completion from Scardino to Logan before the high rolling Rock quarterback scored again running with 2:33 left in the half.

A series of penalties left the Pirates 35 yards from a first down when the second period ended.

Halftime homecoming activities included crowning of Queen Dana Ashley, a Pass Christian High senior, by Pass High Student Council junior representative Mark Funderburg.

THIRD QUARTER

A 45-yard connection from Scardino to Rock end David Zanca for 45 yards in the opening minutes of the third period set up the third SSC score which came on a 30-yard completion from Scardino to Baxter three minutes and 36 seconds into the second-half action.

The Rocks retained possession following a successful on-sides kickoff, and scored again in less than three minutes on a 20-yard completion by Scardino to Baxter.

That series included a 20-yard reception by Logan and a successful Spotorno kick to give the Rocks the lead for the first time in the contest, 28-21.

FOURTH PERIOD

Scardino scored his third touchdown running early in the fourth period with a 40-yard ramble on fourth down.

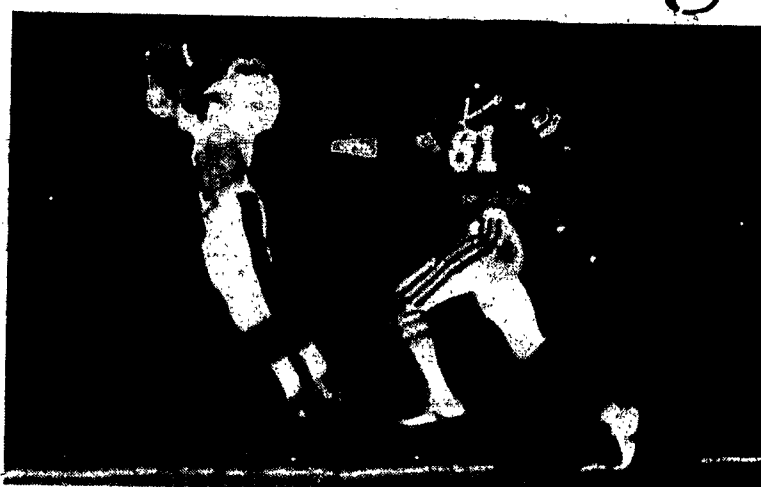

Spotorno's blocked kicked came at this point and the Rocks moved out front 34-21.

The Pirates lost the ball on downs on the following series which included a fake punt at their own 20.

Yarborough made it to the end zone on his third try with a little more than five minutes left in the game, and another Spotorno kick iced the scoring for the Rocks at 41.

The Pirates then embarked on a long drive from their own 31 to score the final tally of the evening on a plunge by Hall.

Let the record show the St. Stanislaus Rock-a-chaws scored a big win—the first such in many a moon—over the Pass Christian Pirates on All Souls Day, Nov. 2, 1984, the score being 41 to 27.

Tigers take 33-20 victory over Hawks

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

The Bay High School Tigers ended the Hancock North Central Hawks four-game winning streak Friday night with a 33-20 victory.

Both Hawk Coach Irvin Favre and Tiger Coach Cleveland Williams said the game was as tough as they anticipated it to be.

"It was a real tough game, just like it is any time we play Hancock," Williams said.

Favre said the Hawks had played a good first half keeping the scoring equal and even being ahead of the Tigers at one time.

"We just seemed to lay down in the second half and couldn't get anything going," he added.

"We wanted to put pressure on Tiger quarterback Jeffrey Smith and instead he put pressure on us."

Smith was a dominant factor in the game for the Tigers and he really did the job for the Bay, he said.

Williams also had words of praise for Smith who was the leading rusher for the Tigers as well as connecting on seven passes for 138 yards.

"Smith did the job Friday, we have been trying to get him to do all year," Williams said.

"Good athletes like Smith, you just can't hold down," Favre noted.

Favre said missed opportunities and the lack of healthy first string ball carriers contributed to the Hawk loss.

Smith started the action in the game for the Tigers with a 90-yard touchdown return of the kickoff. This score gave the Tigers six points just three seconds into the game. Stace McRaney kicked the extra point.

The Hawks had to punt away their first possession but recovered a Tiger fumble and moved it down the field with carries by Stanley Jourdan and Frank Ladner.

Hawk quarterback Melton Lewis connected with Walter Acker who struggled with Tiger defenders for several seconds before being brought down just shy of the goal line.

Jourdan carried it in on the next play and Drew Malley kicked the extra point to even the score.

The Tigers moved the ball to field goal range and attempted to add three but could not make it. A Hawk penalty for roughing the kicker on this play gave the Tiger a first and goal on the 10.

Bay moved ahead again with 1:41 left in the first quarter as Smith connected on a TD pass.

The score remained the same until midway the second quarter when Jourdan scored again for the Hawks. The two-point conversion attempt was stopped.

The Tigers took possession, fumbled again and the Hawks began a drive that put them ahead of the Tigers for a short time.

Starting from the middle of the field, the Hawks scored in eight plays. Frank Ladner made the points.

The Hawks carried a 20-14 lead to the lockerroom at the half.

Taking the second half kickoff the Hawks were unable to move the ball very far before they were forced to punt. The punt was blocked and the Tigers took over on the Hawk 45.

Several plays later, Smith connected with Dennis Dear for a TD

Bay Senior High Tigers

pass to tie the score 20-20 near the end of the third quarter.

Following a Hawk punt, the Tigers took possession again and moved swiftly to the endzone to pull ahead 27-20.

The Tigers took over on downs after the next Hawk possession but the Hawk defense held them this time and the Tigers were pushed back to a fourth down and 40 yards to go situation.

Hawk offense was unable to move the ball again and the Tigers took control moved the ball inside the 10-yard line.

Smith sneaked through to score and the Tigers took a 33-20 with only six minutes left in the game.

The Hawks had the ball once more but were unable to score.

Williams said it looked like the Tigers just wanted the win more.

Next week the Tigers will take on St. John and the Hawks will travel to D'Iberville for the district championship game.

Ron Meyers Productions of Gulfport is presenting the first annual Christmas Fair and Craft Sale, featuring more than 125 booths and tables at the Coast-Coliseum Exhibition Hall Saturday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Meyers said Friday, several sellers from Hancock County have reserved space for the event which will feature free parking, free admission, free refreshments and free turkeys to be given away hourly.

"And of course no Christmas fair would be complete without Santa who will be there to give treats to the children," Meyers added.

"This event will feature high quality items of a type which we could not present in previous fairs at the open-air Rice Pavilion," the promoter stated.

"At the Coliseum we won't have to worry about the weather, we will have the comfort of air conditioning and soft, easy-listening Christmas carols will contribute to a holiday atmosphere," he continued.

Christmas gifts of all shapes and sizes will be offered, he noted, including fine porcelain and hand-crafted quilts, macrame and dolls.

Meyers said some spaces for preferred dealers are still available. For information contact Ron Meyers Productions, P.O. Box 7021, Gulfport, Ms., 39506.

Q. How do I apply for supplemental security income?

A. If you think you might be able to get SSI, or you are not sure, phone or visit any Social Security office right away. SSI payments can start only with the day you apply or the day you meet all the requirements, whichever is later. The people at the Social Security office will tell you how to apply. The phone number and address of the Social Security office are listed in your phone book under "Social Security Administration."

Q. Does Medicare pay for dental care?

A. Medicare medical insurance can help pay for dental care only if it involves (1) surgery of the jaw or related structures, (2) setting fractures of the jaw or facial bones, or (3) services that would be covered when provided by a doctor. If you need to be hospitalized because of the severity of a dental procedure, Medicare can cover your hospital stay even if the dental care itself is not covered by Medicare.

Point of Law

(Prepared by the Mississippi State Bar. Some rights may vary from locality to locality. Always consult an attorney when in doubt about your legal rights.)

Q: I am legally blind, and since my wife died two years ago, I have lived in a nursing home. I am 79 years old, but my mind is still good. I want to give my old homeplace to my daughter and her husband, but I don't want them to sell it. I want to make sure that the old place stays in the family so that my grandchildren and the generations after them will have it to enjoy. How can I do this?

A: Unfortunately, the law will not let you completely restrict the ownership of your property or your family for the unlimited future. Mississippi has abolished perpetual restriction of land ownership, as have most other states.

Nevertheless, there are certain things you legally can do to perhaps achieve your purposes, such as giving the property to your daughter for her life only, with the land going to someone else at her death. To do this would raise other problems, however, so it may or may not be what you want.

In any event, you need to discuss this matter carefully with your lawyer so that he will know your true intentions and will be able to advise you how to best address the situation.

Legislators view shrimp experiment

The smell was that of shrimp boat piers along the Mississippi Gulf Coast, but the site was the rolling farmland on the Mississippi State University campus. The animals seined from a pond were as big as crawfish and even lobster, but they were shrimp.

Lt. Gov. Brad Dye and legislators who watched the harvesting of shrimp grown in fresh water ponds recently saw the results of the first year of an experimental program conducted by the Mississippi Agriculture and Forestry Experiment Station (MAFES).

Members of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and area legislators who observed the harvest included Senators Bob Montgomery of Canton, Tommy Brooks of Carthage, Jack Gordon of Okolona, Bill Harpole of Starkville, Walter Graham of New Albany, Bill Minor of Holly Springs; Speaker C.B. "Buddie" Newman; and Representatives Ed Perry of Oxford, Jim Simpson of Long Beach and Jerry Wilkerson of Daleville.

The shrimp seined from the four-foot deep pond, which resembles ponds catfish are grown in, were so large that it only took 10 of them to make up a pound. This means a yield of 1,600 to 1,700 pounds of shrimp per acre.

Post-larval shrimp the size of minnows were imported from Jamaica and stocked in the MAFES ponds in May. During the four month, two week growing season, the shrimp grew from 1/4 gram to an average size of 60 grams each.

"In our first year, we have achieved the best results in the United States."

South Carolina and Louisiana have been experimenting but the best they got was about 900 pounds to the acre. We have benefitted from the research of the Israelis who have harvested 1,500 pounds to the acre," Dr. Lou D'Abramo told the legislators.

He noted that the shrimp can be grown with catfish, but during this first experimental year, the catfish appeared to be off-flavor, which is not unusual for harvest this time of year.

Construction is currently underway on two greenhouses for a hatchery and a nursery to extend the growing season by two months before the shrimp are placed in ponds.

"The United States imports about $1 billion a year in shrimp. The purpose of this research effort is to see if it is economically feasible for our farmers to grow shrimp in fresh water ponds. At the end of five years, we should know if it is not feasible," said Dr. John Waldrop, co-leader of the project.

During the special session this year, the Legislature appropriated $500,000 for the MAFES aquaculture program, part of which went to the shrimp program. Asked by the legislators what their needs for the future are, the researchers said they would like to double the number of their ponds.

Further studies will include the feasibility of two growing seasons per year and producing the crop in the hill sections of the state.

"I am certainly impressed with the success of this program which appears to have few problems to overcome. The shrimp are delicious and I can see great potential for a new industry which will greatly benefit the economy of our state. I am proud that Mississippi is becoming the leader in this field of research and I am certainly in favor of continuing the project," said Dye.

Mississippi Public Radio airing Sunday 'spacemusic'

With all of the radio stations to choose from, one might think that just about any type of music is already available.

Nevertheless, a new sound is making its debut on Public Radio in Mississippi each Sunday night at 10 p.m.

The program is called 'Music from the Hearts of Space' and it is different.

The Program is a subtle weave of electronic music, soft jazz, classical adagios and meditative music from around the world that you may never hear anywhere else.

The series melts hundreds of composers from Brian Eno, Vangelis and William Ackerman to Paul Horn, Alan Hovhaness and Bach.

Programs are unified by sound rather than style or genre.

This music is not jazz, rock nor classical in the usual sense—it's an entirely new category of experience called 'spacemusic.'

'Hearts of space' is the brainchild of veteran radio producer Stephen Hill and Anna Tuner.

Each week's one-hour, uninterrupted program is designed to provide the listener with a beautiful space for deep relaxation and peaceful reflection.

PRM frequency from Biloxi is 90.3 FM.

Nicolaou's attorney files petition for transfer to state penitentiary

William Frisbie, attorney for convicted murder Allen Nicolaou, filed a petition Friday requesting Nicolaou be sent to Parchman. Nicolaou is currently being held in the Harrison County Jail while he awaits a preliminary hearing scheduled for Wednesday on capital murder charges.

Frisbie said in the petition Nicolaou could become harmful to himself or others due to the conditions of his incarceration.

In the Harrison County Jail

Nicolaou is being held in isolation behind double doors. The six-foot by eight-foot cell has no windows.

Nicolaou has a towel, a blanket and a mattress, is only allowed to wear undershorts and is not allowed personal hygiene items, Frisbie said.

The petition states that these conditions constitute cruel and inhuman treatment.

Nicolaou has been in the Harrison County Jail since Monday when he was transferred from the Hancock County Jail after being charged with the murder of Charles Alan Poole, his cellmate.

Prior to Poole's death, Nicolaou was already awaiting transfer to the state penitentiary after pleading guilty to the shooting deaths of Waveland resident Gerald Conisky and Keith McMillian of New Orleans.

In addition to life sentences on each count of murder, Nicolaou was sentenced to 40 years for armed robbery and 30 years for each of two counts of kidnapping.

Reversed opinion allows run-off for school board

BY DENA BISNETTE

Because a state attorney general's opinion has been reversed, a school board run-off election may be scheduled in Hancock County if no candidate receives a majority of votes in Tuesday's General Election.

The original opinion, written Oct. 12 by Special Assistant Attorney General Richard M. Allen at the request of Hancock County Election Commission Secretary Charles F. Gottschalk, said a run-off could not be allowed in a school board election under Mississippi law.

However, Allen reversed his opinion Oct. 29 after Gottschalk notified him that election commission records indicate that Hancock County is covered by a local and private bill allowing run-off elections in school board races.

Gottschalk said he had discovered a previous opinion written by Assistant Attorney General W.D. Coleman in 1980. That opinion said that Hancock County is the only county in Mississippi covered by the bill.

The 1980 opinion was obtained to end controversy over a school board election in which Richard "Pat" Patterson was defeated by George Ladner in a run-off election.

Patterson won the general election with 1,417 votes, beating George Ladner with 1,270 votes and Gerald Ladner with 900 votes but not obtaining a clear majority. George Ladner got 835 votes in the run-off and Patterson got 784 votes.

Gottschalk said he expects run-offs to be scheduled in the school board race and in one of the election commission races because there are four candidates running for each post.

Obtaining an attorney general's opinion concerning an election commission run-off was not necessary because state law already provides for run-offs for election commission posts.

Commission approves subdivision plans

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Hancock County Planning Commission has decided to recommend the approval of a new subdivision in Lakeshore.

Plans for Green Pines Subdivision, located on Lower Bay Road, were presented to the commission Thursday by Bill Whitfield.

Whitfield proposes dividing his property into 14 lots of varying sizes.

The commission decided to recommend that the board of supervisors grant final approval to the subdivision after minor changes are made on the plat to indicate an offset for a road right-of-way on the Lower Bay Road side of the property.

The recommendation will be presented to the supervisors at their Monday meeting.

In other business, county building official Donn Murray gave the commission a report on the building permits issued during October.

Murray said 37 permits were issued last month for a total of $1,147. They included five permits for houses, 18 for trailers and three for additions, as well as 13 no charge permits for installation of utility poles or similar purposes.

The 37 permits include six more than October 1983, when 31 permits were issued for a total of $1,401.

The commission meets again on Dec. 6.

Taylor also noted that there would be a display of old farm equipment at the fairgrounds, that should be of interest to many people.

County Agent Notes

BEWARE SILO GAS

As silage begins to ferment, poisonous gases may form in the silo as a result of nitrate accumulation in some silage corn.

Hancock County farmers should be extremely cautious when entering a silo, since nitrogen dioxide is formed from the nitrate in corn.

Nitrogen dioxides are brown-colored gases that are extremely poisonous. It has a pungent odor and irritates the eyes.

Be sure someone is with you anytime you enter a newly filled silo. Don't enter the silo if you see or smell these gases.

Breathing these gases can cause anything from little or no harmful effects to death. The harmful effects depend on the type of gases present, their concentrations and the length of time the victim is exposed to the gases.

To be safe, run the blower a few minutes before entering the silo. These gases are heavier than air and settle on top of the silage and may also accumulate in the silo chute if the silo is in a low area with poor drainage and circulation.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

Attention home gardeners! Now is the time to have your soil tested. If you had problems with your garden this past summer your soil may be sick.

The only way to correct the sickness is to get a prescription and this comes in the form of a soil analysis. To get this prescription just take a good representative sample of your yard or garden and bring it to the Extension office.

You will receive your analysis in 7-10 days. There is a charge of $5 per sample plus mailing.

Fisher—Sallinger

Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church was the setting for the October 20 marriage of Lori Ann Sallinger and Rodney Rex Fisher. The Rev. Francis Farrell, pastor, and Dr. R.L. Summers, pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Gulfport, officiated at the 1 p.m. ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Joseph Sallinger of Bay St. Louis. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rex S. Fisher of Long Beach.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. John McKenna, organist, and Mrs. Alan Noonan, soloist. Readings from scripture were rendered by Mrs. Alvin Ladner of Bay St. Louis and Mr. Robert Reeves of Long Beach.

Arrangements of white gladioli, fugi, and button chrysanthemums and greenery adorned the altar. Palm and fern greenery decorated the sanctuary while pews were marked with ivory satin bows and greenery.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of pale ivory satin with fitted Victorian bodice and sheer yoke of English net enhanced with beaded silk venise lace and chiffon and leg-o-mutton sleeves appliqued with European laces. Hand-clipped European lace was lavishly applied on the full, flared skirt and the hemline and cathedral train were bordered with scalloped embroidered lace. Her satin bridal hat featured a slightly rolled brim with silk venise lace covering the crown, silk flower and pearl trim, and illusion pouf with chapel streamers at the back.

She carried a cascade of ivory rosebuds, stephanotis and plumosa fern interspersed with satin picot ribbon streamers.

Fran Sallinger Seal attended her sister as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Dianne Fauchaux Cenac of New Orleans, cousin of the bride; Nancy Hathaway Wambsgans of Waveland; Sherry Garrett Seymour of Ocean Springs; Janet Sallinger McQueen of Picayune, sister of the bride; Lori Johnson Parks of Bay St. Louis and Marie Kurzweg Sallinger of Lafayette, La., sister-in-law of the bride.

The attendants were identically attired in teal taffeta gowns in tea length each with sweetheart necklines and puffed sleeves enhancing the shirred bodice which featured a basque waistline and full, circular skirts. They wore tiny hats in matching color with French veiling pouts accented with self rose.

They carried clutch style bouquets of pale peach kyria roses, fugi pompons, plumosa fern and lemon foliage with satin streamers.

Miss Lindsey McQueen of Picayune, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore an ivory tea length moire taffeta dress with short puffed sleeves, schiffli lace collar, and dropped waistline with self sash and bow. She carried a wicker basket of kyria roses and fugi pompons.

Randall Lee Fisher of Long

Beach, brother of the groom, was best man.

Groomsmen were Rick Fisher, brother of the groom, Fred Williams and John Hankins, all of Long Beach; Jeff DeVries of Gulfport; Ellis Seal of Bay St. Louis, brother-in-law of the bride; and Barry Sallinger of Lafayette, La., brother of the bride.

Christopher Kelly McQueen of Picayune, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mrs. Sallinger chose for her daughter's wedding an ivory tea length dress of ptailed schiffli embroidery over taffeta in sheath styling with long sleeves and self-bow at the neckline.

Mrs. Fisher was attired in a two piece satin stripe dress in taupe. The square-neck, long sleeved overblouse topped a full, pleated skirt.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club. Floral arrangements in autumn colors decorated the rooms.

On return from a wedding trip to Florida, the couple resides in Pass Christian.

Clubs, Auxiliaries

8 and 40

The monthly meeting of the 8 and 40 Salon of Harrison County met at the American Legion home in Bay St. Louis with Mrs. Mattie North presiding. The highlight of the meeting was the initiation of new members. Five red candles in crystal holders on a long white altar for the ceremonial with a bowl of red carnations added beauty to the altar. A carnation was given to each candidate as part of the ritual.

Le Petite Chapeau, Mrs. Mattie North took her place in the center back of the altar, La Secretaire on the right and L'Ammonier on left. The candidates faced the altar and the Chapeau and officers and chairmen explained the ideals and principles of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary, which are to strengthen the ties of affection that bind us to our parent organization; to promote good will; and to assist in the prevention and control of T.B., cystic fibrosis, lung and other respiratory diseases in children.

Members who took the obligation were Mrs. Crystal Holsa, Mrs. Inez Bouis, Mrs. Hazel Wohlschlegel, Mrs. Carmela Boyd and Mrs. Shirley Williams.

Partnership in 8 and 40 is limited to women who have been members in good standing in the American Legion Auxiliary for a period of 36 consecutive months and who have in the judgement of the Le Petite Salon qualified for partnership in the 8 and 40 by outstanding services to the American Legion Auxiliary. Being a partner in the 8 and 40 is to enjoy together the fine fellowship in loving service, self-sacrifice and being charitable.

Dr. Esther Oeschmann, L'Ammonier (chaplain), would like to impress all with the following prayer: "Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed. Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking. May we put away all pretenses and meet each other face to face without self-pity and without prejudice. May we never be hastily in judgment and always generous. Let us take time for all things. Make us grow calm, serene, gentle. Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straight forward and unafraid. Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences, that in the big things of life we are as one. And may we strive to touch and to know the great common women's heart of us all and, O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind. Amen."

ETV Brief

AQUACULTURE

"Nova" examines aquaculture, the ancient technique of raising aquatic animals and plants, on "Farmers of the Sea" at 8 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 13 on Mississippi ETV.

Aquaculture may hold the answer to providing adequate food and employment for large populations in a variety of settings.

First developed by the Chinese 4,000 years ago as a way of supplying their emperors with fresh fish—considered then, as now, a delicacy in the Oriental diet—aquaculture and its modern applications bear out the truth of the old Chinese proverb: "Give a person a fish and he will have food for one day; teach a person to fish and he will have food for a lifetime."

ETV Brief

JEALOUS RAGE

Franco Zeffirelli's new, updated production of "I Pagliacci" starring Placido Domingo and Teresa Stratas will be presented on "Great Performances" at 9 p.m., Friday, Nov. 9 on Mississippi ETV.

Zeffirelli has set his version of Leoncavallo's famous opera in Depression-era southern Italy. Written in 1892, the popular two-act work, which runs just over an hour and features one of opera's best-known arias, "Vesta la gubba" was, in fact, based on a true story.

Leoncavallo's father, a judge, sat on the bench during the trial of an actor who, overcome with jealousy, killed his wife after a performance.

Mabus won't name cities under scrutiny

State Auditor Ray Mabus says a number of unspecified Mississippi municipalities are under investigation by his office for possible misuse of public monies.

In remarks following an Oct. 30 address to an Honors Forum gathering at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg, Mabus declined to identify municipalities presently under scrutiny, but said his office was investigating "the same types of things that we looked at in Laurel."

During the forum speech, he cited a $29,000 expenditure for non-existent tires and $56,000 spent for coffee—discrepancies cited in the Laurel audit—among a list of cases previously made public by his office. He said all investigations by his office are a result of citizen complaints.

"Sunshine is the best disinfectant for government...a government that you know what it's doing, can't do many bad things to you," Mabus said.

He said when he was elected state auditor, there was "no filing system in the office, no indexing system, no training for the auditors and no investigations were being undertaken."

"I found $330,000 in a show box in my office the first day," Mabus said, referring to funds collected for auditing services. "That violated title and deposit laws and very accounting principle that I can imagine."

Mabus, a former legislative assistant during the administration of Gov. William Winter, is credited as being an architect of Mississippi's Education Reform Act of 1982.

"It put Mississippi, for the first time, in the leadership role in some major part of this county," he said, referring to articles in the Washington Post which said the act was, "the greatest piece of economic development, civil rights and national defense legislation in this nation passed this decade."

"The Arkansas Gazette said that it's no longer good enough to say, 'thank God for Mississippi...at least we're not last,'" he said. "I hope that Arkansas can catch up."

Citing major proposed state governmental changes and priorities during the next five years, Mabus called for a more efficient form of state government, a new state constitution, full implementation of the Education Reform Act and "hard decisions in higher education."

"We have got to make higher education a more integrated part of our economic development effort," he said. "And we've got to move to basic research and integrate the great higher education system that we have—including this great university—so that we can use the talents, brain power and the energy that is focused in Hattiesburg and at Southern Mississippi."
